Message From the Dean

1

Dear CHPS Graduating Class of 2025,

Congratulations! Today is a testament to your hard work, perseverance, and dedication. You've put in the hours, faced challenges head-on, and emerged stronger. As you move into the next chapter of your life, take pride in what you've accomplished and the impact you are prepared to make.

Your time at UVU and in the College of Health and Public Service has been about more than coursework — it's been about building a foundation for service, leadership, and lifelong learning. As you step into your careers, know that you will always be part of this community. I encourage you to stay in touch with your faculty and department; we would love to hear about your journey and continue to support you along the way.

On behalf of our faculty and staff, we are proud of you and excited to see where your path leads. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all you do.

Best wishes,

Thomas Sturtevant, SFHEA

Valedictorians

ERIN MOONEYHAM MAY

Bachelor's Valedictorian

B.S., Criminal Justice

Erin Mooneyham May is from Houston, Texas, where she graduated from Magnolia High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in criminal justice with a minor in national security. May made the dean's list every semester and was able to be part of the UVU Criminal Justice Honors Club and the open-source intelligence program and internship. Her favorite part of her time at UVU was being surrounded by diverse people, all moving toward a common goal. May has worked as a security control analyst at Brigham Young University and hopes to work for the DEA.

ALEXANDRA GUTIERREZ NAVARRO

Associate Valedictorian

A.S., Nursing

Alexandra Gutierrez Navarro hails from Mexico, Jalisco, as an immigrant who moved 10 years ago with her two parents, and two brothers to nearby Provo, Utah. She attended school and finally graduated Provo High School in 2021 and started to attend UVU in August of that year. She is graduating with an Associate in Science in nursing. Navarro made the dean's list every semester of 2023 and 2024, received a Cultural Competency Certificate in her program, a science proficiency certificate and passed the NCLEX on her first try. Her favorite part of UVU was the variety of classes, opportunities, and perspectives she was exposed to. After graduation, Navarro will begin a career as a bilingual postpartum registered nurse and hopes to pursue further education in women's health.

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

4 The Outstanding Student Award is nominated and chosen by the department faculty as the individual who best exemplifies excellence in their field of study and service. These students performed exceptionally throughout their academic careers and served as examples to their classmates, faculty, and families.

RACHEL FRANCIS

*Outstanding Student: Nursing
ASN, Nursing*

Rachel Francis hails from Kuna, Idaho, where she attended Kuna High School. She is graduating with an Associate in Science in nursing (ASN). President of the UVU Student Nursing Association, Francis' time at UVU has cultivated a love and understanding of science that has propelled her through nursing school. Her favorite part of UVU is "the strong sense of community between students and professors" and "the accessibility of quality education." After graduation, Francis plans on pursuing a job in a critical care setting in either Utah, Idaho, or North Carolina.

MARTHA HANSEN

*Outstanding Student: Public Health
B.S., Public Health*

Martha Hansen calls Lawrence, Kansas, home but completed high school at Box Elder High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in public health. From serving as the vice president of Wolverine Public Health and working at the UVU Writing Center, Hansen has made the most of her time at UVU. One of her favorite things about being at UVU has been "being surrounded by staff, students, and faculty who are passionate about success, regardless of background." As Hansen looks ahead, she hopes to further her passion for making a difference in the field of female reproductive healthcare.

CORINNA ROSE CARLISLE

Outstanding Student: Criminal Justice

B.S., Criminal Justice

Hailing from South Lake Tahoe, California, Corinna Rose Carlisle graduated from North Valleys High School in Reno, Nevada. She is receiving a Bachelor of Science in criminal justice. A member of the Alpha Phi Sigma Criminal Justice Honor Society and a UVU dean's list honoree, Carlisle also works at The Refuge Utah crisis center. Her favorite part of UVU has been feeling like she's part of a big family where she fits in. Carlisle has been offered a position at a local law enforcement agency and hopes to someday obtain her Master of Social Work degree.

HANNAH BOREN

Outstanding Student: Respiratory Therapy

B.S., Respiratory Therapy

Hannah Boren came to UVU from Meridian, Idaho, where she graduated from Rocky Mountain High School. She is graduating this spring with a Bachelor of Science in respiratory therapy. In addition to pursuing certifications, participating in an asthma internship, and maintaining a place on the dean's list, Boren helps run a program focused on teaching kids about lung health. She is grateful for UVU's large variety of classes that helped her figure out what she wanted to pursue. After graduation, Boren hopes to work in a hospital and someday be part of a Life Flight team.

MALAYNE SIMONS

Outstanding Student: School Health Education

B.S., School Health Education

Malayne Simons is from nearby Santaquin, Utah, where she graduated from Payson High School. She is receiving a Bachelor of Science in school health education. Simons spent her time at UVU immersing herself in friendships with peers in her health education program who pushed her and built her up toward her goals. Her favorite part of UVU is the teaching experience she gained from her program. Simons plans to work toward a teaching job after graduation in the field that she loves.

KAMBRIE ALLEN

Outstanding Student: Dental Hygiene

A.A.S., Dental Hygiene

Kambrie Allen calls Lehi, Utah, home and graduated from Lehi High School. She is graduating with an Associate in Applied Science in dental hygiene. Allen has had a vibrant experience at UVU that has included maintaining a high GPA, being elected president of the Student American Dental Hygienists' Association, and participating in the ribbon ceremony for UVU's Lehi Campus. Her favorite part of UVU has been forming life-long friendships with classmates and professors from her program. After graduation, she plans to start working on her bachelor's degree and open more doors in her career.

BRANDON MEEVES

Outstanding Student: Physician Assistant

M.P.A.S., Physician Assistant Studies

Hailing from UVU's home base of Orem, Utah, Brandon Meeves graduated from Timpanogos High School. He is graduating with a Master of Physician Assistant Studies. While attending UVU, Meeves was selected to participate in the Advanced Surgical PA Workshop hosted by the University of Alabama at Birmingham, where he learned hands-on surgical skills and techniques. His favorite part of UVU has been the emphasis on quality patient care and the fellow students, faculty, and staff who made his time here invaluable. After graduation, he plans to practice medicine in Utah and be the best provider he can be.

TARA HEALES

Outstanding Student: Forensic Science

B.S., Forensic Science

Tara Heales calls Salt Lake City, Utah, home and attended Hunter High School in West Valley City. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in forensic science with an emphasis in forensic investigations. An alumni of the first graduating class of UVU's A.S. forensic science program, Heales has made the dean's list every semester and was the top choice for a competitive internship at the Salt Lake City crime lab. Her favorite part of UVU has been studying a subject she loves while being guided by professors with real-world experience. After graduation, Heales intends to pursue a forensics career.

EMMALIE PARKER

Outstanding Student: Healthcare Administration

B.S., Healthcare Administration

Emmalie Parker calls the desert of Gilbert, Arizona, home and is a Higley High School graduate. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in healthcare administration. Parker made the most of her time at UVU by making the dean's list every semester, participating in the UVU Honors Program, serving as a UVU Resident Community Leader, and more. She is passionate about the opportunities UVU has given her and believes that "you will always get out what you have put in" at the university. After graduation, Parker plans to pursue a Master of Health Administration.

ARIELE ISABEL PEREZ

Outstanding Student: Master of Public Administration

MPA, Public Administration; G.C., Emergency Management and Homeland Security Administration

Ariele Isabel Perez is from St. George, Utah, and graduated from Etiwanda High School. She is graduating with a Master of Public Administration and a Graduate Certificate in emergency management and homeland security administration. While at UVU, Perez worked as a caseworker in the Utah Department of Health and Human Services. Because of this, she has greatly appreciated UVU's flexible schedule options, which have helped her focus on her education. Perez plans to continue working in the public sector with new knowledge and skills that will follow her throughout her career.

ISAAC ROLLINS

Outstanding Student: Police Academy

C.O.P., Law Enforcement

Isaac Rollins hails from South Jordan, Utah, and graduated from Bingham High School. He is graduating from the UVU Police Academy with a Certificate of Proficiency in law enforcement. Rollins attributes his classmates for his great experience at UVU and said, "The bond of teamwork and brotherhood that we've developed will be what I miss the most after graduation." He is grateful for the valuable lessons he's learned from UVU's excellent instructors. After graduation, he will be working as a police officer for the Murray Police Department.

RACHEL SWEAT

Outstanding Student: Health Sciences

B.S., Health Science

Rachel Sweat calls Spanish Fork, Utah, home and is a Maple Mountain High School graduate. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in health science with a minor in nutrition. During her time at UVU, Sweat has been on the dean's list multiple times and is part of the university's Lead, Engage, Acquire, and Discover (LEAD) program. Her favorite part of UVU has been "this environment where I can learn about what others believe and cherish and grow in my appreciation toward them." After graduation, Sweat aims to pursue her Master of Public Health degree.

ALLISON JENSEN

Outstanding Student: Emergency Services

B.S., Emergency Services Administration

Allison Jensen is from Spanish Fork, Utah, and graduated from Utah Online School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in emergency services administration. Jensen was on the dean's list in both the spring and fall semesters of 2024 and was awarded a scholarship for her accomplishment. She most enjoyed UVU's class schedule options, which fit her schedule and helped her graduate earlier than she had anticipated. After graduation, Jensen plans to continue her career as a paramedic.

CAMDEN MEAD

Outstanding Student: National Security Studies

B.S., National Security; C.O.P., National Security and Advanced Technologies; C.O.P., Intelligence

Camden Mead hails from Salem, Utah, where he graduated from Salem Hills High School. He is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in national security studies with a minor in geography and Certificates of Proficiency in national security and advanced technologies and intelligence. Mead has stayed busy serving as a student coordinator at the Center for National Security Studies and much more. His favorite part of UVU has been the accessibility and the ability students have to be whatever they want. After graduation, Mead plans to finish law school and pursue a job in the federal government.

FRANCESCA GOLLY

Outstanding Student: Emergency Medical Services

B.S., Emergency Services Administration

Francesca Golly is from Springville, Utah, and graduated from Landmark High School. She is receiving a Bachelor of Science in emergency services administration. While at UVU, Golly was part of the jiu-jitsu club and was able to achieve her greatest accomplishment by completing the paramedic program. She appreciates the opportunities UVU gave her to explore her interests and cherishes every part of her university experience. Golly has been working as a part-time paramedic and hopes to further her career.
