COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Message From the Dean

Dear Graduating Class of 2025,

1

Congratulations on reaching this impressive milestone in your academic journey! As the dean of the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, I am proud of your achievements.

Your path to graduation has been marked by resilience, determination, and growth. You've mastered academic, personal, and professional challenges and are now ready to make meaningful contributions to society.

Throughout your time here, you've developed critical thinking skills and an understanding of human behavior and social dynamics. These tools will serve you well in your next chapter.

Remember, learning is a lifelong journey. I encourage you to stay curious, seek new experiences, and continue to challenge yourselves both intellectually and personally.

As you leave our campus, know you carry with you the support and pride of our entire academic community. We're excited to see the impact you'll make in your fields.

To the families and supporters of our graduates: thank you for your invaluable support and encouragement. Your role in this achievement cannot be overstated.

Class of 2025, as alumni, you'll always be part of our college family. We look forward to hearing about your future successes and hope you'll stay connected with us.

Congratulations once again on your well-deserved success. Go forth with confidence and determination to make a positive difference in the world!

Sincerely,

Steven C. Clark, Ph.D.

ALUMNI SPEAKERS

AARON HALL

In 2017, Aaron N. Hall graduated from UVU summa cum laude with a degree in communications and public relations. He is the author of eight books, including the critically acclaimed fantasy comedy “The Legend of Uh.” He currently serves as the director of public relations for Operation Literacy, a 501c3 nonprofit on a mission to lift individuals and communities through a love of reading and writing. He believes that stories have the power to change people for the better.

NICK VARNEY

Nick Varney is a graduate of UVU's history education program. He has a master's degree in education policy from the University of Pennsylvania's Graduate School of Education and is currently a Ph.D. student in education leadership policy at Texas Tech University. He has been a program scholar with the National Governor's Association, a Stanford University Innovation Fellow, and an Oxford Map the System Global Challenge finalist.

Professionally, he has been a public school teacher, a nonprofit program director, and an education consultant. He currently works for the Utah Office of the Legislative Auditor General, where he conducts performance evaluations on education and executive agencies.

VALEDICTORIAN

In Latin, valedictorian means "farewell sayer." This prestigious honor recognizes not only academic excellence, demonstrated by maintaining a 4.0 GPA, completing a minimum of 90 credits at UVU, and earning a bachelor's degree in a CHSS discipline, but also the demonstration of leadership, character, and service to our college community.

CAITLIN CHRISTINA BEASLEY

*B.S. Family Science
summa cum laude*

Caitlin Christina Beasley calls Pleasant Grove, Utah, home and graduated from Pleasant Grove High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in family science. Beasley has worked as a pediatric CNA for over five years and largely attributes this experience to helping her pursue a career in family science. Her favorite part of attending UVU has been improving her critical thinking and collaborating with her peers. After graduating, Beasley intends to apply to the Intermountain Health Child Life practicum and internship while pursuing a career as a child life specialist.

SALUTATORIAN

8

The term salutatorian comes from the Latin word “salutator,” which means “greeter” or “one who greets.” This prestigious honor recognizes not only academic excellence, demonstrated by maintaining a 4.0 GPA, completing a minimum of 90 credits at UVU, and earning a bachelor’s degree in a CHSS discipline, but also the demonstration of leadership, character, and service to our college community.

JACEELYN SMITH

*B.S. Psychology
summa cum laude*

JaCeelyn Smtih is from Logan, Utah, and graduated from Mountain Crest High School. She is receiving a Bachelor of Science in psychology with minors in cognitive neuroscience and family science. Through mentorship from her professors and advisors, Smith has adapted to new learning environments and technology while balancing her personal life. This one-on-one focus is one of her favorite parts of UVU, and it has helped her learn valuable time management skills and more. After graduation, Smith is considering law school or a Ph.D. program in psychology or neuroscience.

EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT RECOGNITION

The Exceptional Student Recognition is awarded to students who have distinguished themselves by maintaining a 4.0 GPA, completing a minimum of 90 credits at UVU, earning a bachelor's degree in a CHSS discipline, and receiving positive recommendations from faculty, advisors, and mentors.

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

10 The Outstanding Student Award is nominated and chosen by the department faculty as the individual who best exemplifies excellence in their field of study and service. These students performed exceptionally throughout their academic careers and served as examples to their classmates, faculty, and families.

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: COMMUNICATION

MASON BENTLEY MCLAUGHLIN

*B.S., Public Relations and Strategic Communication
magna cum laude*

Hailing from St. George, Utah, Mason Bentley McLaughlin graduated from Desert Hills High School. He is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in public relations and strategic communication. While at UVU, McLaughlin has gained hands-on career experience through his program and was even a 2024 SkillsUSA National Extemporaneous Speaking Champion. His favorite part of attending UVU has been accessing large university resources while having a small university experience. After graduating, McLaughlin plans to pursue a career in public relations in the automotive industry.

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: ENGLISH

ÉAMONN THOMAS DANIEL SHULTS

*B.S., English
summa cum laude*

Éamonn Thomas Daniel Shults is from American Fork, Utah, and graduated from American Fork High School through the Home and Hospital Program. He is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in English with a creative writing emphasis, a minor in digital media, and a Global/Intercultural Distinction. A member of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society, Shults was editor-in-chief for the Touchstones Literary Journal, received an Innovation Academy Fellowship, and was published over 15 times. His favorite part of UVU has been working at the Writing Center, where he enjoys engaging with and meeting students from different backgrounds. After graduation, Shults plans to pursue an MFA in fiction.

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: HISTORY & POLITICAL SCIENCE

SARAH SEMADENI

B.S., History and Social Studies Education

summa cum laude

Hailing from Logan, Utah, Sarah Semadeni is a Logan High School and Snow College graduate. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in history and social studies education with a minor in music. In addition to graduating with a 4.0 GPA and history teaching experience, Semadeni has been part of two UVU operas and will be singing in Italy this summer. Her favorite part of attending UVU has been making amazing connections and learning to teach herself so she can keep growing. After graduation, Semadeni hopes to teach history in Utah and obtain a master's degree.

11

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: LANGUAGES & CULTURES

BRITTANY BUNKER

B.S., Spanish Education

cum laude

Brittany Bunker hails from Sandy, Utah, where she graduated from Brighton High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish education, a minor in Spanish for professional interpretation and translation, and a Global/Intercultural Distinction. While pursuing her degree, Bunker worked for the Smith College of Engineering and Technology and studied abroad in Spain and Puerto Rico. Her favorite part of attending UVU is knowing faculty and staff have your back. After graduation, Bunker will travel with her family and plans to teach in the fall.

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: PHILOSOPHY & HUMANITIES

ADHVAITH KODURU

B.S., Philosophy; B.S., Mathematics

summa cum laude

Adhvaith Koduru is from Lehi, Utah, and attended the Utah County Academy of Sciences. He is graduating at age 17 with a Bachelor of Science in philosophy and a Bachelor of Science in mathematics with a minor in computer science. Koduru explored his interests and discovered his passion for mathematics, philosophy, and computer science at UVU. His favorite part of the university is the sense of community and comradery he found due to smaller class sizes. Koduru has been accepted into a Master of Logic program at the University of Amsterdam, which he will begin in September.

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: PSYCHOLOGY & COUNSELING

ELLIE ORTIZ

B.S., Psychology
summa cum laude

Ellie Ortiz is from Pleasant Grove, Utah, and graduated from Pleasant Grove High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in psychology. While pursuing her degree, Ortiz presented at the UVU Mental Health Conference in October of 2024, participated in the UVU Honors Program, and earned an Advanced Substance Use Disorder Counseling Certificate (ASUDC). She said she enjoys the welcoming and supportive nature of UVU students and faculty. After graduation, Ortiz is excited to be part of UVU's Clinical Mental Health Counseling (CMHC) Program in the fall.

OUTSTANDING GRADUATE: SOCIAL & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

GABRIELA ULLOA

B.S., Sociology
summa cum laude

Gabriela Ulloa is from American Fork, Utah, where she attended American Fork High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in sociology. In addition to being part of the UVU Honors Program, Ulloa served as Miss Wellsville 2022, Miss Zion 2023, and Miss Utah County Volunteer 2023, which earned her over $5,000 in scholarships. Her favorite part of attending UVU is the strong sense of community and “the shared drive for success among students, faculty, and staff.” After graduation, Ulloa plans to continue working as a figure skating coach and the Learn to Skate program director.
