Message From the Dean

Dear 2025 School of Education Graduates,

1

On behalf of the faculty and staff of the School of Education, it is my privilege to congratulate you on your outstanding achievement! We are proud of your accomplishments as we recognize you as School of Education graduates.

Your graduation marks the culmination of the work, dedication, and perseverance you have invested in earning your academic credentials from one of the programs at the UVU School of Education. It highlights your exemplary ability to set and achieve your goals, and your passion for learning and commitment to excellence will support your future endeavors.

Your studies and preparation at UVU have equipped you with knowledge and skills to positively impact individuals, communities, academic fields, and industries, and we wish you success and new achievements. Stay connected with us as members of our large community of alumni, students, graduates, faculty, staff, collaborators, and supporters while also serving as ambassadors for UVU and our School of Education!

Congratulations, School of Education graduates! May your journey be filled with countless moments of success, fulfillment, and new opportunities to continue reaching your goals!

Sincerely,

Vessela Ilieva, Ph.D.
Dean, School of Education

Valedictorians

ANA LILIA CORDOVA

Bachelor's Valedictorian

B.S. Elementary Education

Ana Lilia Cordova, from Eagle Mountain, Utah, graduated from Los Altos High School in Hacienda Heights, California. A nontraditional student, Cordova returned to school in her 30s and maintained a 4.0 GPA, among other high honor achievements at UVU. She plans to pursue a Master of Advancement in teaching and learning, teach elementary school, and mentor new teachers. She is grateful for the support of her family and the mentorship of UVU professors. Cordova is a proud military wife to Freddy and mother of six: Michael, Joseph, Andrew, Gabriel, Sofia, and Anabelle.

SAVANNAH KREIDER

Associate Valedictorian

A.S. Early Childhood Education With High Honors

Savannah Kreider, from Soldotna, Alaska, graduated from Soldotna High School in 2016. Kreider is pursuing a Bachelor of Science in human development and family studies with a minor in psychology at the University of Utah. She works at The Sammy Center, supporting children's social and emotional development. Kreider plans to further her education at Stanford University and eventually open a Reggio Emilia-inspired preschool on Alaska's Kenai Peninsula. Kreider is a third-generation Alaskan who began teaching preschool in 2019. She is grateful for the supportive professors and experiences she had at UVU.

MALLORY EASTMAN

Outstanding Student-Elementary Education

B.S. Elementary Education

Mallory Eastman, from Tooele, Utah, graduated from Tooele High School. She has been active in five clubs and worked for four scholarships at UVU, graduating debt-free. Eastman accepted a teaching position with the Provo School District and plans to pursue a Master of Behavioral Science, aiming for a career as a professor or Ph.D. She is grateful for the mentorship of Krista Ruggles and the opportunities UVU provided to help her network and prepare for her career. Her favorite part of UVU was the friendships she made and the people she met. She is thankful to her husband and parents for their constant support.

DARCI BLACKETT

Outstanding Student-Secondary and Special Education

B.S. Special Education; Minor in Autism Studies

Darci Blackett, from Mapleton, Utah, is a graduate of Spanish Fork High School. Blackett will begin teaching at a local high school this fall and plans to pursue a master's degree while learning Spanish to better serve multilingual students. Blackett has maintained honor status and been on the dean's list, exploring courses like human anatomy, photography, and yoga. She is grateful for the support of her husband, children, and grandchildren and values the lasting relationships she's built with her professors, specifically George Odongo, Cami Burton, Jennifer Call, and Trevor Warburton.

MIMI MARRERO

*Outstanding Student–Student Leadership and Success Studies
B.S. University Studies*

Mimi Marrero, a nontraditional student from Mt. Pleasant, Utah, attended high school in Los Angeles, California. After a 25-year hiatus, she returned to school to pursue a career as a licensed clinical social worker and to launch a nonprofit providing accessible mental health services to LGBTQ+ individuals, focusing on Spanish-speaking and low-income communities. Marrero has balanced school, business ownership, and parenthood. She is proud of her determination and dedication to serving marginalized communities. Marrero enjoys spending time with her pets and is passionate about social justice and mental health advocacy.

MEGAN FROWICK-MORGAN

*Outstanding Student–Graduate Education
M.E. K-12 Education Leadership*

Megan Frowick-Morgan, from Draper, Utah, graduated from Norfolk High School in Nebraska. She currently serves as the assistant director at the Jean Massieu School of the Deaf. Frowick-Morgan is working toward her Utah School Leadership License and is pursuing her second master's degree while balancing a full-time job and raising three young children. She holds a Bachelor of Science in history and a Master of Science in deaf education and has 11 years of experience as a high school history teacher. Frowick-Morgan appreciates UVU's small class sizes, the practical, real-world curriculum, and the accessibility of American Sign Language (ASL) interpreters, which have all supported her career growth.

STEPHAN SEABURY

Outstanding Student–Graduate Education

Stephan graduated Magna Cum Laude from Utah State University and has been an award-winning teacher at Providence Hall High School for the last 11 years, teaching US history and AP government courses. He was named the James Madison Fellow's Fellow for 2023, receiving a full scholarship for his graduate studies. Stephan is part of the leadership team for the Utah Teacher Fellows and serves as an advisor to the Utah Civic Learning Collaborative. He believes a civically engaged teacher creates civically engaged students and has had the opportunity to work with policy makers in the governor's office, state legislature, and the state board of education.
