WOODBURY SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Message From the Dean

Congratulations on reaching this significant milestone in your academic journey! Today, we celebrate your hard work, dedication, and grit that have brought you to this point.

1

Graduating from the Woodbury School of Business is not just an achievement; it is a testament to your commitment to learning and growth. As you move into the next chapters of your lives, I am filled with optimism about the contributions you will make to the business community and society at large. The skills, knowledge, and values you have acquired here will empower you to solve problems, innovate, and lead with integrity.

Remember: The world needs your vision and your passion. As you embark on your professional journeys, I invite you to foster collaboration, embrace new opportunities, and strive for excellence. Your potential is limitless, and I am excited to see how you will shape the future.

Once again, congratulations! I am proud of you and look forward to witnessing your successes in the years to come.

Bob Allen, Ph.D.

MAKENLEY GROSS

Bachelor's Valedictorian

Bachelor of Science, Accounting

Makenley Gross is from Springville, Utah, and graduated from Springville High School. She is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in accounting with a minor in business management. While at UVU, Gross became a certified peer educator (CPE), earned multiple certifications, and developed strong leadership skills. She credits her time at UVU with helping her build a strong foundation in accounting and prepare for her future career. After graduation, she plans to pursue a career in accounting and become a certified public accountant (CPA). Outside of academics, Gross enjoys ceramics, horseback riding, and spending time with family and friends.

DAKOTA TURNER

Associate Valedictorian

Associate in Applied Science, Business Management

Dakota Turner is from Lehi, Utah, and attended Skyridge High School. She is earning an Associate in Applied Science in business management and will graduate with a Bachelor of Science in digital marketing this December. A recipient of an academic merit scholarship at UVU, she has maintained a 4.0 GPA while working part time. Turner's positive experience at UVU has been shaped by her professors' dedication and passion for their subjects. After graduation, Turner plans to pursue a career in brand marketing for small businesses, drawing inspiration from Substack newsletters that feature female founders. In her free time, Turner enjoys collecting jewelry and spending time with family.

Salutatorian

ABBIE JO FUHRIMAN

Salutatorian

Bachelor of Science, Digital Marketing

Abbie Jo Fuhriman is from Tremonton, Utah, and graduated from Bear River High School. She is receiving a Bachelor of Science in digital marketing. Fuhriman said she loves the culture at UVU, which pushed her out of her comfort zone and allowed her to get hands-on experience with digital marketing. She maintained a 4.0 GPA throughout college and was a scoring runner for the UVU cross country team. After graduation, she plans to pursue a career that combines her interests in fitness/sports and content creation while also growing her freelance videography business. Outside of academia, Fuhriman loves doing absolutely anything active.

ALESSANDRA CAMARGO

Senior Coordinator, Chelsea and Casey Baugh Entrepreneurship Institute
Dean's Distinguished Award for Staff

With a background in program design, financial management, and entrepreneurship, Alessandra Camargo brings a dynamic approach to supporting student innovators at UVU. She holds a master's degree in business creation from the University of Utah and a bachelor's degree in business management from UVU, combining hands-on experience with a passion for new ventures. As a former student, she competed in nearly every major entrepreneurship competition in the Valley. Now, she's helped build a new program from the ground up at UVU's Baugh Entrepreneurship Institute, guiding students as they launch real businesses. Always exploring new ideas, she's driven to create opportunities for aspiring entrepreneurs.

ALICIA HATFIELD

Assistant Director, Graduate Programs
Dean's Distinguished Award for Staff

Alicia Hatfield joined the Woodbury School of Business Graduate Studies team over three years ago as the Graduate Studies enrollment and recruiting manager; she was recently promoted to assistant director of Woodbury School of Business graduate programs. Hatfield has played a pivotal role in expanding enrollment and improving program accessibility, contributing to a 70% year-over-year increase in graduate program enrollment last year. Before joining UVU, she spent 12 years at BJ's Restaurants, Inc. as the director of operations and support. She also ran her own hospitality consulting firm while she and her husband, Eric, raised six amazing kids in Provo, Utah. Hatfield holds a Master of Business Administration from Utah State University.

MICHELLE RANKIN

Professional in Residence, Accounting

Dean's Distinguished Award for Teaching

Michelle Rankin, CPA, is a senior tax manager with over 15 years of professional experience. She started her career with EY in Austin, Texas, and worked for Tanner LLC and Woodbury Corporation in Salt Lake City, Utah. For the past 9 years, Rankin has specialized in real estate and partnership taxation. She joined UVU in the fall of 2021 as a tax faculty professional in residence and teaches graduate and undergraduate courses in taxation. Rankin was the site coordinator for UVU's IRS-sponsored VITA Lab and is currently the Department of Accounting assistant chair and a Master of Accountancy (MAcc) Committee member. For the past two years, MAcc students named Rankin an MAcc Outstanding Faculty Member. Her required graduate-level tax course is routinely named the MAcc Program's most valuable course in exit surveys. Outside of UVU, Rankin works on seasonal tax projects and has served on the Spectrum Academy Board of Directors for two years.

HYRUM SMITH

Professional in Residence, Finance and Economics

Dean's Distinguished Award for Teaching

Hyrum Smith is a professional in residence in the nationally recognized UVU Personal Financial Planning (PFP) Program. He has taught and published research on financial planning topics since 2009, first at Virginia Tech before joining UVU in 2013. Smith teaches undergraduate and graduate tax planning and retirement planning courses at UVU. He has advised teams in National Financial Planning Association student competitions, where they have consistently won first ($10,000), second ($5,000), and third ($1,000) place rankings. Smith's contributions and those of other PFP faculty have helped UVU's PFP Program maintain its reputation as one of the nation's best. Smith is a managing partner at Blue Barn Wealth, a comprehensive financial planning advisory firm. He enjoys bringing client scenarios into the classroom to challenge students' thinking and help them apply their learning to better people's lives.

KARI OLSEN

*Associate Professor, Accounting Department Chair
Dean's Distinguished Award for Scholarship*

Kari Olsen, Ph.D., CPA, CMA, received his Ph.D. in accounting from the University of Southern California in 2015. He received an M.S. and a B.S. in accounting from Brigham Young University in 2009. Olsen teaches courses in management accounting and financial reporting. His research interests include management control systems, performance feedback, and personality characteristics. He currently serves as chair of UVU's accounting department.

CHONG MENG

*Assistant Professor, Finance and Economics
Dean's Distinguished Award for Scholarship*

Chong Meng, Ph.D., is an assistant professor of finance at the Woodbury School of Business. He earned his Ph.D. in finance from the University of Alberta after completing an M.S. in finance at Syracuse University and a B.A. in economics at Shanghai University. At UVU, he teaches principles of finance and financial statement analysis and takes great joy in engaging with UVU students and sparking curiosity. His research focuses on empirical corporate finance, particularly external financing, product market competition, and FinTech. His work has been published in journals such as the Journal of Financial Research, Review of Corporate Finance, and Finance Research Letters. He is deeply inspired by UVU's mission and feels proud to be part of UVU.

MARITZA SOTOMAYOR

*Professor, Finance and Economics
Dean's Distinguished Award for Service*

Maritza Sotomayor, Ph.D., is a professor of economics and has been a UVU faculty member since 2009. She has taught undergraduate and graduate-level courses in multiple modalities and class sizes. She has served the university through a wide range of roles, including associate chair of the Department of Finance and Economics, co-director of the UVU UNESCO Chair, and member of the Utah Economic Council. In addition, Sotomayor mentors first-generation students and student leaders in the ALPFA chapter, coordinates the minor in applied economics and concurrent enrollment programs, and has contributed to numerous committees at the department, college, and university levels. Her research focuses on international trade and development, with recent work on human development indicators, value-added exports in Argentina, and labor outcomes under the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA).

SHELDON SMITH

Professor, Accounting

Dean's Distinguished Award for Service

Sheldon R. Smith, Ph.D., is from Provo, Utah. He graduated from Brigham Young University with three degrees: a B.S. in accounting, an MAcc, and an MBA. He earned a Ph.D. in accounting from Michigan State University. Smith has taught at UVU for 24 years, specializing in intermediate and advanced financial accounting courses. He has seen tremendous progress and growth at UVU during those years in terms of facilities and student numbers and abilities. Before coming to UVU, he taught at Brigham Young University-Hawaii for eight years. Smith and his wife, Sarah, have five children and three grandchildren. He has been blessed to work with many wonderful students, faculty members, and staff at UVU.

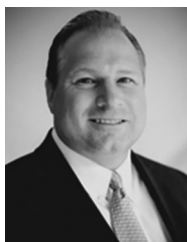

LUKE DEAN

Professor, Finance and Economics

Ian Wilson Community Engagement Award

Luke Dean, Ph.D., is a professor of financial planning in his 11th year at UVU. InvestmentNews recognized him as one of the most influential people in the financial planning profession. Dean has helped UVU's Personal Financial Planning Program win multiple national titles as well as rankings and recognitions as one of the top three national programs, including No. 1 in the Western United States. He is one of only a few professors in the country who has been asked to serve as an advisor for the CFP® Board in Washington, D.C. Dean has a Ph.D. from Texas Tech University, and his research interests include the differences between financial planning firms, compensation, and conflicts of interest. Dean is married to Angela Esplin Dean, and they have five kids.

DALE JOLLEY

Professional in Residence, SMARTLab Director

Ian Wilson Community Engagement Award

Dale Jolley is a multi-award-winning professional in residence, the director of the Woodbury School of Business Sales and Marketing Applied Research Test Lab (SMARTLab), and an expert and thought leader in neuromarketing and biometric testing. He and his research team have built the SMARTLab into one of the world's premier neuromarketing and biometric test labs, where UVU students and Utah businesses learn and experience the most advanced marketing research available. Before coming to UVU, Jolley completed his undergraduate work at Brigham Young University and his graduate work at Utah State University. He spent 25 years in the pharmaceutical and biotech industries, where he had increasing roles of leadership responsibility over marketing, sales, and operations with Pfizer, AstraZeneca, and Syneos.

TAI THORNOCK

Adjunct Instructor, Accounting

Deans' Distinguished Award for Teaching, Adjunct

Tai Thornock is a Dean's Executive in Residence adjunct accounting faculty member at UVU. He teaches undergraduate and graduate accounting courses and MBA students in the Woodbury School of Business. Thornock is the chief accounting officer for Finance of America Companies, Inc. (NYSE: FOA). He is a California CPA and earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Brigham Young University in 1995 and a master's degree in education from UVU in 2023. Thornock has practiced accounting for 29 years, holding finance and accounting leadership roles with FOA, Mr. Cooper (NASDAQ: COOP), Bank of America (NYSE: BAC), and Grant Thornton LLP.

VICTOR FONG

Adjunct Instructor, Finance and Economics

Deans' Distinguished Award for Teaching, Adjunct

Victor Fong has dedicated much of his career to leading large-scale, global enterprise ERP implementations. He has worked and lived in China, Hong Kong, Japan, South Korea, and Southeast Asia. He brings a wealth of information technology expertise and real-world corporate experience to his endeavors. Fong earned an MBA in 2018 and a B.S. in economics in 2003, both from Brigham Young University. He is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP) and holds certification in Lean Six Sigma management. Fong is passionate about teaching business courses and helping students achieve academic and professional success. He loves UVU, as it was the first U.S. college he attended as an international student in the English as Second Language (ESL) program — back in 1998 when the university was called UVSC. In his personal time, Fong enjoys outdoor activities such as hiking and golfing with his wife and three children. As a family, they enjoy visiting Disney parks.
